

SATomorrow: Upcoming Transportation Open House Events

Posted on 07/24/15

San Antonio is expected to grow by over 1 million people between now and 2040. It is important to plan for this growth so we can make smart choices now to prepare for the future. Join us at one of the meetings listed below, or add your ideas online through August 11, 2015.

At these small-scale open houses, you can:

- Talk about transportation challenges, needs, and solutions
- Explore transportation choices and funding options
- Learn what people have said so far

Join SA Tomorrow at one of seven locations across the city over your lunch hour or after work. SA Tomorrow needs your input as it starts to develop strategies to promote safety, manage congestion, preserve the existing system, ensure system reliability, and maintain our city's quality of life. If you are unable to attend in person, the online open house is now open at www.satransportationplan.com/open-house. Map created by NOWCastSA - <http://www.nowcastsa.com>
